

Good Fuid Hospitality

presents

Community Banquets

Community banquets is brought to you by award winning chef Stuart Waterston and the Good Fuid team.

My team and I aim to deliver a first-class dining experience in village halls across the south of Scotland so that local residents can enjoy a quality meal without the need to travel far!

Banquets will be B.Y.O.B and will feature communal tables.

To secure your spot please send a booking request to bookinggoodfuid@gmail.com with the following details:

Number of guests

Full names of each guest

Choice of fish or venison for each guest

Any allergies or dietary requirements

Once we have received your booking request, we will issue an invoice by email and confirm all details. Your spot will be secure as soon as payment is received, then all that's left to do is look forward to the event!